4. Read the following passage and summarize it.

With the discovery of radium, fame came to the Curies - and they did not enjoy it. The two great scientists had discovered a secret nature and later they were to make other discoveries and give them to the world. And how did the world respond to them? By giving them the things they had wanted the most? In fact, the only things they wanted were a good laboratory, peace and quiet! Every day, they received letters inviting them to write articles for the newspapers, to lecture at public meetings and even to give money to unknown persons. Men from the newspaper offices in Paris came to their little home to take photographs of everything, from their baby to their cat and to ask for their opinion on all sorts of subjects. For the curies, all this was the most painful of experiences from which they did their best to escape and never completely succeeded. It left its mark upon them. For many years, when strangers stopped her on the streets to ask, "Aren't you Madame Curie?" Marie would answer in a cold voice mixed with fear, 'No, you are mistaken'.
